

“To be worth anything, character must be capable of standing firm upon its feet in the world of daily work, temptation and trial.”

—Samuel Smiles

Eric Treend

Team Leader, Pyrotechnics Division

As the team leader for Britton-Gallagher’s pyrotechnics insurance division for the past eight years, Eric Treend has grown this area from one account to more than 150 accounts in 32 states. Today, Britton-Gallagher manages 60 percent of the market share for insurance needed in the pyrotechnics industry. Eric’s clients know him as a very hands-on, service-oriented manager. When a client is in need of an initial risk exposure review or policy analysis, Eric does not hesitate to visit personally. Mr. Treend is active in the American Pyrotechnics Association and sits on one of the APA committees.

Debbie Rozzano-Gord
President
Thunder Fireworks, Inc.

“With Britton-Gallagher & Associates, Inc., I feel confident that I have the best coverage for my business.”

H. Stephen Frantz
Vice President
Western Enterprises, Inc.

“We have been a customer of Britton-Gallagher & Associates, Inc. for more than five years. We rely upon them to provide us with the coverage we need for the best possible value. By taking the time to understand the specific needs, Eric has been able to tailor a program of unique insurance coverage. Being responsive to inquiries and change requests, efficiently handling claims, providing internet technology services, and keeping us advised of current changes in the marketplace make the value provided by Britton-Gallagher the best in the business. We are pleased to be part of the Britton-Gallagher family of clients.”

Lansden E. Hill, Jr.
President
Pyro Shows

“Insurance is much more than price. Ultimately, your insurance agent is your partner. Pick your partners carefully.”

BRITTON - GALLAGHER & ASSOCIATES, INC.

insuring with a clear understanding of your Business

